

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to recommend Olvera Company based on their performance on our recent project. Their team demonstrated a strong, collaborative approach throughout, consistently prioritizing client needs and addressing concerns in a timely and professional manner.

They were proactive in budget planning and maintained clear communication when navigating project challenges, including working within an occupied campus environment with minimal disruption. Their coordination and management of trade contractors was well executed, resulting in strong overall performance across all trades.

The project was effectively managed against the budget, with the final cost aligning closely with expectations. Additionally, they identified and implemented cost-saving opportunities without compromising quality.

Overall, Olvera Company delivered a successful project, and I would confidently recommend them for future work.

Sincerely,
Walker Taylor
